Logistics expert Peter Vallenthin joins Greencarrier Freight Services Board

Greencarrier Freight Services International AB welcomes Peter Vallenthin, former Managing Director and Senior Vice President of Norwegian Post – Bring, onto its Board of Directors as of 1st of October.

Vallenthin has a wealth of experience in the freight forwarding and logistics sector, including senior management roles at both TNT Express and TNT Freight Management, as well as with Geodis Wilson, where he was Managing Director Nordics.

Stefan Björk, Chairman of the Greencarrier Freight Services Board, says he is delighted that Peter Vallenthin has agreed to join the Board. “He will be a huge resource to Freight Services with his broad experience and knowledge in both the logistics sector and in driving business growth and success.”

Greencarrier Freight Services, one of the Nordic region’s largest privately owned companies specialising in global transport solutions, has been growing steadily and now employs 625 people in 13 countries.
